WHEREAS, the New York State Open Meeting Law (Article 7, Public Officers Law) gives members of the public the right to attend meetings of public bodies but does not give the public the right to speak or otherwise participate at those meetings, except at Public Hearings and under other limited circumstances; and

WHEREAS, New York State Town Law authorizes a Town Board to enact rules and regulations regarding the conduct of public meetings and Public Hearings conducted by the Town Board, and the New York State Committee on Open Government has agreed that a public body can adopt reasonable rules that treat members of the public equally; and

WHEREAS, a Town Board has a responsibility to ensure that everyone has the right to participate in a Public Hearing and therefore can reasonably limit the length and general nature of public comments to the subject of the Public Hearing so that a Town Board can consider various points of view; and
